

The proposal by BellSouth to eliminate Federal Communications regulatory guidelines does not benefit the American consumer of Internet and Broadband services. In fact it accomplishes the opposite affect. As an American citizen and consumer of independent ISP internet services, I urge you to deny BellSouth's attempt to monopolize this industry. I expect and hope that the FCC will act in the best interest of the American consumer, and not to special interests.

Thank you for your attention.